MySQL 2nd Project
Employee Salaries

1. Show all columns and rows in the table.

2. Show only the EmployeeName and JobTitle columns.

3. Show the number of employees in the table.

4. Show the unique job titles in the table.

5. Show the job title and overtime pay for all employees with overtime pay greater than 50000.

6. Show the average base pay for all employees.

7. Show the top 10 highest paid employees.

8. Show the average of BasePay, OvertimePay, and OtherPay for each employee:

9. Show all employees who have the word "Manager" in their job title.

10. Show all employees with a job title not equal to "Manager".

11. Show all employees with a total pay between 50,000 and 75,000.

12. Show all employees with a base pay less than 50,000 or a total pay greater than 100,000.

13. Show all employees with a total pay benefits value between 125,000 and 150,000 and a job title containing the word "Director.

14. Show all employees ordered by their total pay benefits in descending order.

15. Show all job titles with an average base pay of at least 100,000 and order them by the average base pay in descending order.

16. Update the base pay of all employees with the job title containing "Manager" by increasing it by 10%.

17. Find all employees who have no OvertimePay.